Dear Pastor and Church, dear praying friends!

November-December 2019

As we approach the end of the year, I am looking back at the last few weeks with a very thankful and humble heart. If God would not have blessed us and helped us, nothing lasting could have been accomplished.

Let me start with our Gospel meeting in November. Many invitations and gospel tracts were distributed, personally as well as going through various neighborhoods. Praise the Lord, we saw some visitors come out to the meetings and they received a clear presentation of the Gospel. Remember Dieter and his wife Wanda? We have been praying for them for almost two years now. Dieter came to all the meetings; his wife Wanda did not come at all. The third night into our meetings Dieter got saved. Praise the Lord. I've noticed an immediate working of the Holy Spirit in him. Dieter approached me and said to me »They got me saved!« Then he paused and corrected himself and said: »No, I got saved!« I really believe it was the Holy Spirit telling him on the spot that no man can do anything for anyone else toward his salvation and that salvation is a personal decision someone makes for himself. We have been after Dieter to come back to Church but due to various obstacles he has not been back. Please pray for his spiritual growth as well as for his unsaved wife Wanda.

Right after the Gospel meeting the holiday season came around. We have been very busy with street work, being on the street every Saturday, except one where we were rained out. Hundreds, thousands, of tracts, gospel literature and Bible-verse calendars went out. We had good responses as well as negative ones. Well, that is nothing uncommon and as the Bible says: »...and there is no new thing under the sun.« Eccl. 1:9. Unconverted and sinful men will always act the same toward the Gospel; unconverted and open-hearted men will always act the same toward the Gospel.

It was a blessing to hear one of our men give a testimony how he was approached by a member of an evangelical church here in town with the words »You [meaning us] are the ones that do so much in our town.« Praise the Lord for having a testimony as a Church in our town. Something that I've been really burdened with is to see more street preachers in our Church. It is a blessing that two men have expressed their desire now to come street preaching with me. Amen and Amen!

As we are heading toward the peak of the holiday season and the change of the year, please let me wish you all a very Merry CHRIST-mas and a Happy, most of all blessed, New Year 2020. Wouldn't it be great if the Lord would come back in 2020; and even before? »Even so, come, Lord Jesus.« Rev. 22:20.

To all our faithful friends and supporters, we'd like to express our thankfulness for your spiritual and monetary support. If it wouldn't be for your prayers and your giving, we and our ministry wouldn't be where we are today. God is good – always!

May the Lord bless you; all because of Calvary
