Dear Praying Friends,

As you already know, our passion in ministry is evangelization and church planting through radio. In my 35 years of mission work experience, I have never found a means to spread the gospel to the masses as effective as radio.

Nachig is a Tzotzil Indian village located about seven miles from San Cristobal. Antonio lives there and a few days ago, he (along with his wife and two granddaughters) came to the studios of Compassion Radio to inform us that he had accepted Christ as his Saviour while listening to the gospel preached on our radio station. His statement was: “I wish I had heard Compassion Radio sooner”.

For about two years now, we have been praying that God would open a door for a new church in Nachig. So, we are hopeful that God will use Antonio and his salvation testimony to pave the way for a new work in this needy village. Would you help us pray for Antonio and a new church in Nachig?

As mentioned in previous newsletters, the gospel truly is the power of God unto salvation. The power of the gospel is seen in: “they that sow in tears shall reap in joy”. In the midst of the tears that flow from our weak humanity, the gospel still shines powerfully as we sow the seed of God’s Word. Along with these tears, the harvest continues to be white and yields a great portion of good fruit. And Antonio is fruit that abounds to your account.

Until next time, may God richly bless you.

By God’s Grace,
Tom Sloan
